

On the motion of Alderman Clock seconded by Alderman Irish Rebellion 1916 Drew it was unanimously resolved — "That this Corporation Resolution of the majority of whose members have been identified from the condemnation of days of O'Connell with the constitutional movement for the obtaining of self Government for Ireland, desires to place on record its condemnation of the recent futile and deplorable

506
1916
May 8th deplorable occurrences in Dublin and elsewhere, by which men who have been the avowed enemies of the Irish Constitutional movement have sought to inflict grave injury on that movement and we desire to tender to Mr John Redmond and the Irish Parliamentary Party this expression of our continued confidence in them, and the means and methods they have employed so successfully to secure Home Rule for our Country"

Volunteer Bodies Disarmament of ✓ Councillor McGowan proposed and Councillor Lynch seconded 'That we suggest to the Leader of the Irish Parliamentary Party the advisability of recommending to the Government the disarmament of all Volunteer Bodies throughout Ireland.'
Motion put and carried.