

Fox Brothers and company, manufacturers, 126-128-130 Lafayette street, New York, America, to S. Comerford, Honorary Treasurer, Dun Dealgan Fund. The letter originally enclosed a 10 dollar subscription to the Dun Dealgan museum. Dated 27 April 1916.

In 1910 the County Louth Archaeological Society had purchased Dun Dealgan or Castletown Mount, which is also referred to as the birthplace of Cuchulainn or Cuchulain's Dun. The society opened a museum at Dun Dealgan. Unfortunately the museum was burned down during the civil war years.
