

Part of the audited accounts of the Dundalk Estate, owned by the Earl of Roden, for the year 1886. This page shows the accounts of the farm, which turned a small profit for the year and gives details of the value of stock and crops.

Louth County Archives, in addition to holding a large collection of Lord Roden's estate papers, is holding an exhibition about the history of the Roden estate in Dundalk. This exhibition will be in place at our headquarters in the Old Gaol, Ardee Road, Dundalk, until 30th September 2010 and is open from Monday to Friday, 9.30am to 4.30pm (closing for lunch 1-2pm).
