"Calling on Louth County Council to continue the footpath from Deep Forde housing estate in Meath Co Co area to The Five Oaks housing estate on the Dublin Rd Drogheda. In the interest of serious safety concerns it is imperative that this footpath be completed as children and adults alike must cross the road to access both Drogheda Town Centre and likewise South Gate shopping centre. Residents in both Five Oaks and Deep Forde cannot access either estates without crossing a very busy road at enormous risk to their personal safety. "
Motions	Submitted By: Kenneth Flood	Item ID: 2597
	Date Submitted: 08/11/2017 00:00:00	Owners:
"Following numerous swan collisions with the bridges over The Boyne in Drogheda, this council will fit reflective game guards on all council controlled bridges in Drogheda and liaise with management of Scotch Hall who control de Lacy Bridge to ensure game guards are fitted there".
