	Date Submitted: 08/06/2017 00:00:00	Owners:

" That Louth County Council restores and rebuilds Drogheda's medieval town walls. This would mean a major boost to the town's history, heritage and culture, informing locals and encouraging tourists to visit. This is a matter of urgency and requires immediate attention and major funding. The walls have been subjected to shameful neglect over many years, and have deteriorated, are covered in overgrowth, and are in an appalling and dangerous state".
