COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

To the Grand Jury of Louth assembled at Spring Assizes, 1880.

GENTLEMEN—There were 565 miles of roads under contracts for repairs in the past year at an expenditure of £12,405, including all incidental works, and deducting the re-presentments in aid of the levy. The details under their respective heads for each Barony are given in the tables attached hereto, with a comparative view of the outlay and works for the last three years.

The past season, with the exception of the first three weeks of this month, was more favourable to road-Contractors than the preceding one between Spring and Autumn. Generally the roads have been fairly kept, but I have for some time been forced to stop all payments on the road between Castlebellingham and Mansfieldstown passing by the Railway Station; also for the road between Drogheda and Killineer. Nothing has been done by the Contractor towards making the new road to Greenore in the Barony of Lower Dundalk, for which the whole amount, £280 levied in six instalments is now available; or in cutting down the hills on the Castleblayney old turnpike-road in the Barony of Upper Dundalk, for which £480 was presented in eight instalments, of which five of £60 each are now in hands. In cases of contracts for maintaining roads it would be of great service to the public that your Solicitor should have clear instructions to take proceedings against defaulters between Assizes.

A large quantity of broken stones, as well as a large saving in money effected through my office out of former presentments for the repairs of roads in the Town of Dundalk, stand to the credit of the Barony of Upper Dundalk. The Town Commissioners, through their Secretary, after last Assize, applied to me for the stones. I declined. They are the property of the County, for the Grand Jury to give or withhold—not mine. The subject will now probably be brought before you.

The extra Assistant of last year, having at my request accepted for the present the office of third Assistant, vacant for twelve months, I was unable to satisfy myself in a substitute. Out of the sum sanctioned at last Assizes for this extra assistant it would be fair to grant something to those who did the work, especially my clerk.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN NEVILLE.

AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD.

(COPY.)

Belfast, 27th September, 1879.

GENTLEMEN,—I have the honor to forward herewith, in conformity with the Order in Council of the Lord Lieutenant, bearing date the 21st June, 1878, an Abstract of the Secretary of the Grand Jury of the County of Louth following Summer Assizes, 1879, which has been Audited by me under the said Order.

The Receipts and Expenditure are arranged under different heads, and are balanced by £6,550 14s. 10d. in favor of the County, which formed the balance in the books of the County Bank, at the credit of the Secretary when the Accounts were closed. Having examined the Vouchers for the Expenditure, and the items of which the Receipts were composed, I found that this was the correct amount in hands of the Bank at that time.

The Receipts of the County, from all sources, for the Summer Assizes of 1879, amounted to £9,480 7s. 0d., making, with the balance of £6,889 15s. 7d. when the previous Account was closed, a total of £16,370 2s. 7d.

The Expenditure amounted to £9,819 7s. 9d., leaving a balance of £6,550 14s. 10d. in Bank, as shown in the Account now furnished by me.

The Accounts were prepared, and submitted to me in a very correct, and satisfactory manner.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your most obedient servant,

R. SIMMS, Auditor.

Local Government Board,
Dublin.

GRAND JURY ORDERS AT SUMMER ASSIZES, 1880.

pursuant to the Act 6 & 7 Wm. 4, chap. 116, sec. 146; and we direct the payments upon same to be made in accordance with the Grand Jury Order of this Assizes, regulating such payments, under the Act 20 & 21 Vic., chap. 15, viz. :—"To such contractors, artificers, or workmen as may be duly certified by such Surveyor."

Ordered—That in compliance with the Circular from the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, dated 20th October, 1879, the calling the attention of the Grand Jury to the provisions of the Public Health (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1879, 42 & 43 Vic., chap. 57, sec. 6, and to the advisability of having By-laws prepared and adopted under that Act for the regulation of the use of Locomotives propelled by steam or other than animal power, upon roads or highways: It is ordered that the County Solicitor, in conjunction with the County Surveyor, prepare and publish such By-laws, having previously submitted same to Counsel.

Resolved—That in the case of defaulting Contractors, our County Surveyor do proceed against them by Summons before the Magistrates of the County in such cases as he considers necessary, and the costs and expenses of such proceedings actually incurred by the County Surveyor or his Assistants shall be submitted to the Grand Jury for approval, and if approved, paid by them in cases where they have not been recovered against the defaulting Contractor or his Sureties.

Resolved—That in consideration of the long and efficient services of our County Surveyor, we accede to his request, and grant a fourth Assistant. We have especially taken into consideration the state of his health in sanctioning this appointment.

Ordered—That pursuant to the report of the Committee appointed at last Assizes to take such steps as they might consider necessary to ascertain the position of the County with respect to Gyles' Quay, and the opinion of Mr. Andrews, Q.C., referred to in said report, the said quay and works in connection therewith, be placed in charge of the County Surveyor as part of the County Property, and that a Harbour Constable be appointed for said quay.

Ordered—That the said Applotment and Warrant be given back to said Thomas Burn, for the purpose aforesaid—same to be handed back by him to the Secretary after the hearing of said Process.

Schedule of Contracts for repairs of roads in the Town of Dundalk, presented by the Grand Jury at Summer Assizes, 1880, on the Barony of Upper Dundalk, stating the portion of expenditure upon each chargeable to the Borough of Dundalk, viz. :—

39	J. G. Graham,	992	932	60	3/11	11 15 0
						29 7 8

Signed,

JOHN NEVILLE, County Surveyor.

We direct our Secretary to include the foregoing sums in his Certificate following the present Assizes for re-payment to the County Funds by the Borough of Dundalk.

The Grand Jury assembled at the present Assizes have to express their astonishment at not receiving from the Local Government Board the Account of the County Treasurer for the period to the previous Spring Assizes, Audited, as regulated by Act of Parliament, the absence of which document not only deprives them and the public of the information which is indispensable as regards their fiscal duties, but places the officials of their County in a position of difficulty.

The Grand Jury have further to remark, that under the old system of audit by a Master in Chancery, the duties were performed in a most satisfactory manner, and no such omission as is now complained of was permitted to occur. That, at the same time, the then expense of audit was defrayed by a charge of but 3/- per cent. upon the Account, by way of Presentment; and even this small charge was not demanded when the then "Fee Fund in Chancery" was sufficient for the purpose of the Audit Expenses.

That under the new system of audit, while the charge for same is levied off the County in a similar manner, but at an increased rate of 5/- per cent., (which increase we consider should not be required). The duties have not been performed in the same satisfactory manner as formerly; but owing to the arrangements having been new, the Grand Jury previously have not remarked thereon.

The Grand Jury direct their Secretary to forward a copy of this their Minute to the Chief Secretary for Ireland, to be laid before his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with the view of obtaining a better and less expensive mode of auditing the accounts of County Treasurers' in Ireland for the future.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

To the Grand Jury of the County of Louth assembled at Summer Assizes, 1880,

GENTLEMEN,—The roads on which certificates have been granted to your contractors are generally in good order. They, as well as all the others, will compare favourably with those of any other County in Ireland. The system of giving certificates and making advances between Assizes, under the 128th section of the Grand Jury Act, for all contracts exceeding £20, is, however, almost solely confined to this County. This fully doubles the work required for the ordinary duties of your Surveyor. The piers at Carlingford and Dunany are maintained in fair order. The harbour at Clogher requires improvement. The questions respecting the pier at Gyles' Quay are at present in the hands of a Committee.

Nothing has yet been done with reference to the working of locomotive traction engines on County roads referred to in the Grand Jury Order of last Assizes. These engines sometimes break down culverts and gulleys, but it is difficult to prove the fact. None of the owners have yet obtained the necessary permission to use them, and as far as I understand, they are being worked illegally.—(See sec. 9, 28 & 29 Vic., cap. 83.)

Of the works given to me in charge at last Assizes, the new road at Greenore will be completed at a saving £140, even after paying the occupiers of land, making a saving of 50 per. cent. The filling of the trenches along the Dunleer and Rathescar road is in progress. A sum of £375 saved on roads placed in my hands was represented at last Assizes in aid of the levy.

At this Assizes I shall have completed a service of 40 years and 80 attendances (without an omission) on the Grand Juries of Louth. Within this period you built a new Prison, extended the County Court-house, 35 miles of new roads were constructed, and about 200 miles of old roads added to the mileage under yearly contracts of maintenance. Of these, 47 miles were, previously to 1857, repaired by Turnpike Trustees. Hills were cut and hollows filled, more or less, on 100 miles. An Iron lattice girder bridge, 120 feet span, and several new stone bridges were built. The streets and footpaths in Dundalk were nearly all reconstructed, drained, and new sewers built for a length of about 7,500 feet; even the upper portions of these sewers now in the course of construction are being carried out in entire accordance with the original plans and specifications lodged with your Secretary.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT, SUMMER ASSIZES, 1880.

Generally, for the 570 miles of roads now under maintenance, the formation was gradually much improved, and the working widths increased.

There were four Assistants in 1840, now there are but three.

The works on the present Schedule I shall report on where necessary. The number of tenders for the separate roads varied from twelve in one case down to none for others.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN NEVILLE.

AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD.

COUNTY OF LOUTH.

(COPY.)

Dublin, 2nd July, 1880.

GENTLEMEN,—I have the honor to report that in pursuance of the order in Council of the Lord Lieutenant, dated 21st June, 1878, I have Audited the Accounts of the Secretary of the Grand Jury of the County of Louth following Spring Assizes, 1880, and I forward an Abstract of the Accounts duly declared and certified by me.

The total Receipts from all sources during the period amounted to £8,787 12s. 0d., making, with Balance of £6,550 14s. 10d., a total of £15,338 6s. 10d.

The total Expenditure amounted to £9,095 15s. 11d., leaving a Balance of £6,242 10s. 11d. due by the Secretary, and agreeing with the amount in Bank to the Credit of the County.

The County Cess appears to be satisfactorily collected, but none of the Collectors attended the Audit. Most of the Collectors appear to observe the regulation of the Order in Council requiring the lodgement, fortnightly, of all sums collected, but in some cases this rule is not observed.

The Accounts were laid before me in a clear and satisfactory manner.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

THOS. COLLOT.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

To the Grand Jury of the County of Louth assembled at Spring Assizes, 1881.

GENTLEMEN,

The number of miles of roads under contract last year was 570, and their cost £11,453. In the previous year the number was 565 miles, and the cost £11,952. The details, with other contingent information, are given in the annexed tables. In 1879 there was a sum of £270 represented in aid of the levy. In 1880 the corresponding sum was £652, more than half of which was from savings, and unexpended Presentments in my hands.

Out of £280 placed at my disposal for the construction of the Greenore new coast road, after paying for land, there remains still unexpended a sum of about £162. I propose to keep the repairs in hand until Spring, 1882, and place it then under contract of maintenance with the Bush road, connecting two Railway Stations, when the balance saved—over half the entire amount—can be represented in aid of the levy for Lower Dundalk Barony. The sums expended on other works through the County in my hands are shown in the annexed affidavit, and the balances still available.

The Presentment for £480, to lower hills and fill hollows on the Dundalk and Castleblayney road, will have the last instalment of £60 available at next Assizes, £420 being already levied. The contractor cannot execute the work; and it would be best either to commence at once by placing the funds at my disposal or represent the whole sum in aid of the Barony. I have had Sections prepared on the Carrickmacross road, at Castleryn, at the crossing of the River Fane and adjacent to the Mill Race, to bring forward and submit at Road Sessions.

The payment between Assize and Assize on contract roads, which is peculiar to, and only carried out in this County, render the duties at least equal to those required for the largest Counties; yet the work was done until last Assizes by three Assistants, and now, with the fourth, which the Grand Jury then kindly restored to me, there is one Assistant less than in the County Monaghan, and only the same number as in the County Armagh. I have found it necessary to part with two Assistants in succession since last Assizes. I have replaced one; but as yet, not the second, who was only appointed under an agreement with me in last September. One of the others—the longest in office—has been ill for some months, but I have tried so far to have the work done for him.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT, SPRING ASSIZES, 1881.

The fenders of Carlingford Pier have decayed, and it will be necessary to replace them, and expend any available balance in hands for these and general repairs. I have got the Rules and Regulations for this Harbour and Gyles' Quay, as rearranged by the Board of Works, posted up by the Harbour Constables. It is now necessary to arrange a Schedule of Tolls, suited for both, which I shall submit for your approbation. I have reason to believe, that through the kind exertions of their Chief Engineer, any repairs and defects in Gyles' Quay will be made good by the Board of Public Works.

The County Roads are generally in fair order, with few exceptions, although the weather has been rather severe on surface work.

Two new roads will be submitted, and laid before you to be certified, as a matter of routine—one in Ardee Barony and one in Ferrard. Both are purely of local advantage, with steep gradients.

Your Solicitor has drawn up a form of Order respecting the use of Traction Engines and their Waggon on your County Roads, and requested me to name such bridges and gulleys as I considered it would be unsafe for them to cross. To do so would be impossible without examinations and tests, for which there are no means at my disposal; besides, they are almost innumerable. Generally they are capable of sustaining any fair extra test of this kind. However, the roadway of the Lattice Girder Bridge at Townley Hall might now have defective buckle plates, and it would be right to test them before admitting any heavy engine and its waggon-train to pass over.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN NEVILLE.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

To the Grand Jury of the County of Louth assembled at Summer Assizes, 1881.

GENTLEMEN,—In the Schedule before you there are only a few applications which I have specially to refer to—one for £350 to make 155 perches of new road in the baronies of Ardee and Louth, and in the barony of Ferrard a similar application to make 584 perches at a cost of £372 5s. 9d. The first leads to the Catholic Chapel in Stonetown, in the Parish of Louth, with steep gradients up to 1 in 11; the second in the Parishes of Athdrumin, Mayne, and Clogher, from the hill on the main road, north of Blackhall, to the sea at Reynoldstown, which would have a gradient of 1 in 15 at the hill end. Both are purely local; and if the parish instead of the baronial system were in operation here, as on the opposite side of the channel, such new works could be charged to the district parish or townland, instead of to the baronies, where many should be taxed who could in no way be benefited. When such works are constructed by those really interested, their maintenance afterwards by the baronies may be, however, advocated.

The cost of the repairs carried on at Gyles' Quay by the Commissioners of Public Works since last Assizes—amounting to over £100—is proposed to be levied off the immediate townlands. When I referred to this subject in my last report I certainly expected, in justice, that the expenses would be borne by the Commissioners themselves.

A Presentment for £200, to be levied in four instalments of £50 each, to repair Bellew's Bridge, was made at the last Assizes, and, in the absence of a contractor, the works were handed over to me. Four instalments would take two years to levy, and as it may be necessary to complete the work, or nearly so, this season, I beg to apply, under 20 and 21 Victoria, chapter 15, section 2, that any amount required within the Presentment for £200, be made available out of the surplus funds lying in bank, to be replaced by the instalments of this Presentment.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT, SUMMER ASSIZES, 1881.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN NEVILLE.

TOWNLEY F. FILGATE,

Secretary to Grand Jury.

COUNTY OF LOUTH.

(COPY.)

13, Herbert Road, Dublin,
9th June, 1881.

GENTLEMEN,—I have the honour to report that I have audited the Accounts of the Secretary of the Grand Jury of the County of Louth for the period following the Spring Assizes, 1881, and I forward an Abstract of the Accounts duly declared and certified by me.

The total Receipts from all sources during the period amounted to £8,677 2s. 7d., and with balance of £6,723 7s. 4d. at the commencement, made a total of £15,400 9s. 11d. The total Expenditure amounted to £9,784 3s. 0d., leaving a balance of £5,616 6s. 11d. in Bank to the credit of the County. A sum of £2,300 is invested in Exchequer Bills, and interest thereon to the amount of £49 19s. 5d. is shown upon the Abstract.

The Collection of the County Cess appears on the whole to be satisfactory; but one of the Collectors, Mr. M'Cullough, appears not to observe the Regulation of the Order in Council which requires the fortnightly lodgment of all Cess collected.

The Accounts are very satisfactorily kept.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

THOS. COLLOT.

To the Local Government Board,
Dublin.
