P. J. LYNAM, County Surveyor.

Sworn before me this 27th day of February, 1888.

JOHN S. ROBINSON, J.P.,
 FOREMAN.

Act 6 & 7 Wm. IV., c. 116.

COUNTY OF LOUTH SPRING ASSIZES, 1868.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

COL. SIR JOHN ROBINSON AND GENTLEMEN,

The Maintenance Contracts renewed at this Assizes show a slightly increased cost, amounting to £1193, as against £1168, the amount of the expiring Contracts. As to the effect of competition, it is remarkable that in the Barony of Ferrard every Maintenance Contract was set at the full sum allowed by the Special Sessions, while in Louth Barony, the Contracts amount to little more than one-half of the sums allowed. Where Contracts are set at such very low rates, there will probably be considerable difficulty in getting the work done in a proper manner.

The Special Works include £95 for additional accommodation for Prisoners at Dundalk Court-house, £150 for a Hill cutting in Ardee Barony, and £135 in all for rebuilding and repairing Bridges, Culverts, Retaining Walls, &c., in various parts of the County.

Two important Presentments are sent up for exhibition £200 for a Sea Wall in Ferrard Barony, and £666 for a New Road in Drogheda Barony. The former was fully discussed at last Assizes. The New Road in Drogheda will accommodate local traffic only, as it will not be a short cut which would ever be used by the public at large; and its cost would require a tax of two shillings and two pence in the pound, on the Barony.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT, SPRING ASSIZES 1868.

The prosecutions at Petty Sessions in October, 1866, had such an effect, that not a single Contractor in the whole County was late in delivering materials last October. In four cases, however, labour on roads was so much neglected that summonses had to be issued, and I fear that further steps must be taken. For temporary neglect (chiefly loose stones in Summer and mud in Winter), stoppages are made from sixty-three Contractors, amounting to £108, to be re-presented in aid of the County Cess.

One of my Assistants resigned last August, and I have not filled up the vacancy, so that there is now an opportunity of giving effect to the Grand Jury resolution on this subject at last Assizes.

The usual yearly abstract of expenditure is annexed.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

P. J. LYNAM.

Act 6 and 7 William IV., Chap 116

COUNTY OF LOUTH SUMMER ASSIZES, 1888.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

COLONEL SIR JOHN ROBINSON AND GENTLEMEN,

The new Presentments on the Schedule are of the usual character, none of them being of special importance.

Since March Assizes, 1886, necessary repairs to Giles' Quay in Lower Dundalk Barony, have cost one hundred and twenty pounds nearly. All repairs have been executed in a substantial manner, so as not to require attention a second time. A part of the Quay Wall at Carlingford Harbour will probably require repair shortly, and as there are no funds available, it would be well to make an order on the amount in the Treasurer's hands for that purpose.

For some time past three County roads have been maintained in such bad order that, unless there is an improvement before next winter, the contractors ought to be prosecuted at Quarter Sessions, so as to break the contracts and recover penalties. I now ask you to pass a Resolution giving me the necessary authority to take these proceedings.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

P. J. LYNAM.

COUNTY OF LOUTH SPRING ASSIZES, 1889.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT.

Col. Sir JOHN ROBINSON AND GENTLEMEN,

With reference to the Order for a Prosecution made at last Assizes, I have to report that a quantity of materials were delivered, for which I paid shortly after Assizes, in order that these materials might be available for repairs. Your Solicitor afterwards informed me that this payment condoned the offence, and that the prosecution must drop. Since then the road has been much improved.

The new Pier at Carlingford, which cost about fifteen thousand pounds, has been handed over to the charge of this County. A portion of the work shews signs of weakness and has moved slightly, but is not as yet in a dangerous condition.

The following two works are in an unsatisfactory state, No. 72, Road from Drumcar towards Dunleer; and No. 196, Hill Cutting near Mills of Louth. I beg to recommend that the Contractors may be prosecuted at next Quarter Sessions.

In cases of neglect since last Assizes summonses to Petty Sessions were directed against fourteen Contractors. In eleven of these cases the work was done and costs settled before the summonses came on for hearing.

There has been more than the usual amount of petty neglect, owing in part to bad weather. The fines (chiefly in sums of from ten shillings to five pounds) noted for re-presentation in aid of Cess, amount to slightly over two hundred pounds for the half-year.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

P. J. LYNAM.

TOWNLEY F. FILGATE,

Secretary to Grand Jury.

COUNTY OF LOUTH.

(COPY.)

DUBLIN, 22nd February, 1889.

GENTLEMEN,

I have the honor to report to you that I have Audited the Accounts of the Secretary of the Grand Jury of the County of Louth, following the last Summer Assizes, and pursuant to the provisions of the Order in Council, I forward herewith an Abstract of the Accounts as formally certified and declared by me.

I observed in the course of the Audit a presentment for a sum of £52 to Mr. John C. Bailie, Sub-Sheriff, being the amount of expenses, exclusive of Printing, incurred by him in carrying into execution, "the Juries Ireland Acts," for one year ending Summer Assizes, 1888.

This presentment purports to have been made under the 16th Sec. of the Act 34 & 35 Vic, Cap. 65, and I must say that I have grave doubts as to its legality.

The Section cited, provides for the remuneration of certain officers for the duties imposed upon them in carrying out the provisions of the Act, and for the payment of expenses incurred in connection therewith; but neither the Sheriff or Sub-Sheriff is mentioned as being entitled to remuneration or compensation under the Section.

I think the Grand Jury would act wisely by fortifying themselves with legal advice as to the legality of any similar presentment for a like purpose.

The Accounts presented to me were prepared by the Secretary of the Grand Jury, Mr. Filgate, with his accustomed accuracy; and were vouched in a most satisfactory manner.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

W. M'DERMOTT,

Govt. Auditor.

COUNTY OF LOUTH.

COUNTY SURVEYOR'S REPORT

AT SUMMER ASSIZES, 1889.

Col. Sir JOHN ROBINSON AND GENTLEMEN,

The most important new work on the Schedule is the cutting of a hill on the road through Drumbilla, Upper Dundalk Barony, to cost £250.

The total amount of Presentments for new works and renewals of contracts was £1,138 3s. 9d., which was reduced by competition at Adjourned Sessions to £982 2s. 10d.

No. 4 on the Schedule, Ferrard Barony, includes a branch road which, in my opinion, is of no use to the public, and ought to be rejected.

The contractor for the cutting on the road from Louth to Mills of Louth was prosecuted at Quarter Sessions, as directed at last Assizes. The contract was declared broken, and, in addition, a decree was obtained against the contractor for the sum of one hundred pounds. The contractor, however, lodged an appeal, and the work remains in an unfinished and dangerous condition.

On the road from Louth to Ballykelly, No. 468, there is evidence to show that materials were surreptitiously removed off the road after being measured. I beg to recommend that the contractor's certificate may be cancelled, and that his pay for one year may be stopped, and re-presented to the credit of the Barony.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient Servant,

P. J. LYNAM.
