OSRADHARC GAIRID

Ní raibh daonra Lú riamh chomh líonmhar agus a bhí i 1841 nuair a bhí 128,000 ina gcónaí ann. Thit sé sna chéad seachtó bliain eile agus i nDaonáireamh 1911 sheas sé ag 63,665, roinnte go cothrom idir fhireannaigh agus bhaineannaigh. Bhí 600 príosúnach i dtrí theach oibre -- Baile Átha Fhirdhia, Droichead Átha agus Dún Dealgan -- agus bhí 1,085 duine ar fhaoiseamh lasmuigh, arbh ionann é agus duine amháin as gach 38 den daonra. I gcomhréir le contaetha eile, ba é sin an tríú líon ba mhó i gCúige Laighean i ndiaidh Chathair Bhaile Átha Cliath agus Co Cheatharlach. Caitlicigh ab ea a bhformhór mór (91%), agus ba bhaill de na príomh-eaglaisí Protastúnacha formhór an 9% eile.

Faoi 1912 bhí réabhlóid chiúin ar siúl i Lú. Faoi Achtanna Talún i ndiaidh a chéile, aistríodh úinéireacht níos mó ná leath d'achar iomlán an chontae ó thiarnaí talún go sealbhóirí beaga. Tríd an teannas idir tiarnaí talún agus tionóntaí a mhaolú, bhí Lú i dtuairim Chonstáblacht Ríoga na hÉireann (RIC) síochánta den chuid is mó.

Thíos faoin dromchla, bhí an pobal i gcoitinne beo bocht. I 1911, bhí daoine ina gcónaí ann i 14,200 teach, agus ceithre sheomra ar a mhéad i 10,000 díobh sin. agus trí sheomra nó níos lú in 7,400 díobh, nó os cionn leath. Ní raibh ach seomra amháin ag 556 teaghlach díobh. Bhí 113 teaghlach ina gcónaí i dtithe a tógadh as láib nó ábhar meatach eile, agus ní raibh ach seomra agus fuinneog amháin ann.

I Lú ba iad an talmhaíocht (4,500 feirmeoir, 3,500 oibrí feirme / seirbhíseach), an tseirbhís baile (2,500 seirbhíseach baile), agus tionscail an línéadaigh, an chadáis, agus monaraíocht éadaigh agus éadaí (2,300) na príomhfhoinsí fostaíochta. Bhí 3,500 duine cláraithe mar oibrithe 'neamhoilte', agus 36,000 (56% den daonra) san aicme 'éiginnte agus neamhtháirgiúil'; den chuid is mó iad siúd a bhí ró-bhreoite, ró-shean nó ró-óg le dul ag obair.

I 1914, mhair an gnáth-oibrí neamhoilte i Lú ar phá seachtainiúil de £0.16.0 sa tseachtain, a chlúdaigh díreach leath den chaiteachas a theastaigh d'earraí riachtanacha amhail bia, éadaí agus cíos. Bhí tionchar cinntitheach ag leibhéal íseal an phá ar fhir go leor a smaoinigh ar liostáil i bhfórsaí na Breataine nuair a bhris an cogadh amach i 1914.

Ó thaobh na polaitíochta de, chuir Lú beirt MP náisiúnach chuig Parlaimint Westminster, ach i measc na náisiúnach, bhí deighilt ghéar idir lucht tacaíochta Pháirtí Parlaiminteach na hÉireann (IPP) faoi cheannaireacht John Redmond agus lucht an fhrith-Pharnellítigh Tim Healy (nó a acalaí Augustine Roche) a choimead a shuíochán i ndáilcheantar Lú Thuaidh idir 1890 agus 1916, taobh amuigh de thréimhse ghearr i 1910.

I 1905 bunaíodh brainse den Chomhairle Náisiúnta i nDún Dealgan, eagraíocht radacach ina raibh 'Sinn Féin' ina mhian a tháinig chun bheith ina ghluaiseacht pholaitiúil le cónascadh eagraíochtaí ar aon intinn i 1908 Sna blianta tosaigh sin suas go dtí 1917, mhol Sinn Féin socrú bunreachtúil a shamhlaigh go bhfanfadh Éire laistigh den Ríocht Aontaithe faoi dhémhonarcacht leis an mBreatain amhail socrú na hOstaire-Ungáire.

Eagraíocht rúnda faoi mhionn ab ea Bráithreachas Poblachtach na hÉireann (IRB) arb é a gcuspóir polaitiúil poblacht neamhspleách Éireannach a bhunú. Measadh go raibh smacht ag an IRB ar Chumann Lúthchleas Gael (CLG) i Lú sna 1890idí, agus de réir cuntas amháin, rinne sé 'innealtóireacht' ar bhunú Shinn Féin i nDún Dealgan, agus ar Óglaigh na hÉireann i Lú i 1914. Ba é tuairim daoine eile, áfach, go raibh IRB Lú neamhéifeachtach agus nach raibh ann ach seanfhir a bhí i gcónaí ag beartú comhcheilge.

Bhí Constáblacht Ríoga na hÉireann an-ghníomhach i Lú, ag comhrac na coireachta agus ag coimeád súil ar dhaoine a bhí ag beartú comhcheilge i gcoinne an rialtais. I 1912, bhí naoi mbeairic déag RIC ann, roinnte idir Ceantair Dhún Dealgan agus Droichead Átha. San iomlán, bhí 117 fear RIC lonnaithe i gContae Lú i seacht bhfo-cheantar déag le sáirsint agus trí chonstábla ar a laghad i ngach áit díobh.

I 1912 bhí Arm na Breataine ina chuid thábhachtach de shaol slándála, sóisialta agus eacnamaíochta Chontae Lú. Baineadh úsáid as beairic an airm i nDroichead Átha den chuid is mó chun earcaigh agus cúltacaithe a thraenáil agus i mbeairic Dhún Dealgan ba fhoinse bhrabúsach trádála agus tráchtála í an Airtléire Ríoga Machaire – measadh gurbh fhiú £40,000 sa bhliain do Dhún Dealgan garastún an airm (thart ar € 4,000,000 i bhfigiúirí 2020).

Faoi 1914 bhí Éire i mbaol a bheith súite i gcogadh cathartha. Chun cur i gcoinne aontachtaithe a bhí tar éis féin a armáil agus Óglaigh Uladh a bhunú chun cur i gcoinne an Rialtais Dúchais, bhunaigh náisiúnaithe Óglaigh na hÉireann agus ag a bhuaic i mí Lúnasa 1914, mheas an RIC go raibh 5,000 fear in Óglaigh Lú.

Maraíodh níos mó ná 800 fear as Lú sa Chogadh Domhanda sna deich mbliana ina dhiaidh sin, agus ghlac 138 Óglach páirt in Éirí Amach 1916. Le linn Chogadh na Saoirse, úsáideadh an príosún contae ina bhfuil cartlanna an chontae, chun go leor réabhlóidithe a chur i bpríosún lena n-áirítear Earnán de Blaghad agus Traolach Mac Suibhne. Chuaigh an Cogadh Cathartha i bhfeidhm ar an bpríosún nuair a gabhadh Frank Aiken agus a chuid fear de 4ú Rannán an Tuaiscirt d'Óglaigh na hÉireann, fir a d'éalaigh ina dhiaidh sin, agus nuair a cuireadh triúr ball de na fórsaí frith-Chonartha chun báis ar an 13 Eanáir 1923. Cuireadh triúr eile chun báis i mbeairic airm Dhún Dealgan ar an 22 Eanáir 1923.

Faoinar am gur éiríodh as an troid i 1923, bhí Lú scartha óna chúlchríoch eacnamaíoch agus shóisialta i gcontaetha Ard Mhacha agus an Dúin sa socrú polaitiúil trína ndearnadh críochdheighilt ar Éirinn. Thaispeáin Daonáireamh 1926 gur lean daonra Lú de bheith ag titim agus nach raibh ann anois ach 62,739, agus go háirithe nach raibh ach leath de dhaonra Protastúnach 1911 fágtha, titim ó 5,399 go 3,100.

Thóg sé céad bliain, agus oscailt na gcartlann a bhí dúnta go dtí seo, sular thosaigh staraithe ag scrúdú imeachtaí 1912-23 i gContae Lú. Cuirfidh an t-ábhar atá i gCartlann Chontae Lú go mór lenár dtuiscint ar na hamanna agus na himeachtaí sin.

Cartlann Údaráis Áitiúla Lú

Is foinse thábhachtach iad na bailiúcháin cartlainne poiblí mar tugann siad léargas saibhir ar obair agus ar ábhair spéis údaráis áitiúla sa tréimhse sular bunaíodh stát neamhspleách Éireannach. Tá siad leathan agus éagsúil agus uaireanta is iad na gnáthdhoiciméid riaracháin a fhéadann beocht a chur i scéalta na ndaoine a mhair trí deich mbliana 1912-1923. Cé go mbeadh sé dodhéanta gach mír ó na deich mbliana a dhoiciméadú anseo, tá cuid de na cartlanna is úsáidí agus is suimiúla sa treoir seo.

DUNDALK WATER SUPPLY.

REPORT OF HENRY A. CUTLER, Mem. Inst., C.E.

To the Chairman and Members of the Dundalk Urban District Council.

GENTLEMEN,

In August, 1914, I received instructions through your Town Surveyor, Mr. M. Sellars, to advise your Council on the proposed alterations to and extensions of the Dundalk Water Works.

By the end of the year 1914 I had twice visited the works and considered all the available information supplied by Mr. Sellars, but could not complete my report until dry weather flow gaugings and other data had been supplied.

In December of this year I received the information required, and had a long consultation with Mr. Sellars, and now have pleasure in submitting the following report :—

The population of Dundalk is estimated at 16,000 and the water consumption at 50 gallons per head per day for all purposes, giving a total daily consumption of 800,000 gallons.

Unless a very large quantity of water is used for manufacturing purposes, a considerable quantity must be wasted, as the domestic supply should not exceed 35 gallons per head, and I would advise that every effort should be made to curtail the waste as a first step to improve the supply.

The water supply to Dundalk is obtained from a catchment area of about 1,210 acres at Ballymakellet, and the portion of the flow off used for the town supply is impounded in a reservoir of 28,000,000 gallons capacity opposite Aghnaskeagh House.

From a perusal of all the rainfall records available in the district I am of opinion that it would not be safe to rely upon a greater fall during the driest year than that recorded at Ravensdale School by Mr. Lock in the year 1887, viz. : 25·36 inches.

From before-going data the annual water consumption is computed at 292,000,000 galls. which would require an annual run off of 11 inches of rain from the catchment area at Ballymakellet.

From calculations based on the probable monthly rainfall, the yield from the catchment area in the driest year is about 12 inches, and the storage required for the present population about 87 days supply. As the present reservoir contains only 35 days supply it is evident that storage capacity for an extra 52 days is required unless the catchment area can be increased.

With regard to the enlargement of the present reservoir, I have considered a proposal put before me by Mr. Sellars for raising the top water level, but cannot recommend such a course, as the safety of the reservoir is already imperilled by adjacent quarrying operations.

A site for a new reservoir worth considering is in the vicinity of the cave adjacent to the present reservoir. With the increase in population the daily supply could be augmented without increasing the catchment area by providing further storage to equalize the yield over the three driest years. As an alternative to providing such a large increase in storage at the present, the catchment area could be increased by taking in the water shed at Anaverna containing 625 acres, as proposed by Mr. Sellars. The joint catchment area of Ballymakellet and Anaverna would be 1,835 acres, and an annual run off of 7 inches of rainfall from the same would supply the present population. By calculations based upon the same data for the joint areas as for Ballymakellet the total storage required for the present population would be reduced to 69 days, or 34 days supply in addition to the present storage.

The intake from the Ballymakellet area is from two streams by a pipe 18-inches in diameter from each. The two 18-in. pipes converge at a chamber where they discharge into a 16-in. pipe 3,645 yds. long which conveys the water to the reservoir. The 16-in. pipe is divided into two lengths by an overflow chamber, the upper length being 293 yds. and the lower length 3,352 yds. The lower length of pipe discharges under pressure, the head being limited by the level of the overflow to 65·6 ft. With this head the pipe should discharge at the rate of about 2,236 galls. per minute, if clean, but from gaugings made by Mr. Sellars the maximum discharge appears to be at the rate of only 1,263 gall. per minute, so that whatever the rate of run-off from the water shed the supply to the reservoir can never exceed this rate, which is only a small per centage of the rate of flow from the catchment.

By cleaning out the 16-in. pipe its discharging capacity would be nearly doubled, and by altering the position of the overflow to a point about 200 yds. further from the reservoir a head of about 110 ft. could be obtained and the discharging capacity of the cleaned pipe increased to 3,000 galls. per minute.

At the present time the crowns of the intake pipes are 12 inches above the weirs across the streams from the water shed, so that there must be a very large flow to waste over the weirs before the intake pipes can discharge at their full capacity.

Notice of Ordinary Meeting of Guardians.

SIR,

Notice is hereby given you, that at their Ordinary Meeting, to be held at the Board-room of the Workhouse, on MONDAY, the 22nd day of SEPTEMBER, 1919, at 11 a.m., the Board of Guardians will consider the recommendations contained in the following report of the Visiting Committee :—

Board-room,
Dundalk Dispensary,
1st September, 1919.

At a meeting of your Visting Committee held here to-dav to consider the arrangements to be made in conection with the motor ambulance, the following recommendations were agreed to, viz:—That as it would not be desirable to use the same vehicle for the conveyance of infectious and ordinary cases, a second motor ambulance be provided at a cost not to exceed £350. That a licensed chauffeur capable of making running repairs be appointed at a salary to be fixed by the Board, and provision made for his residing at the Workhouse, which would ensure the prompt removal of patients to hospital. That the use of the ambulance be offered to the Committee of the Co. Infirmary and Urban Council for the removal of patients on terms to be mutually agreed on. Your Committee think a telephone should be installed at the Workhouse. (Signed)—Patk. Byrne (chairman), Wm. Woods, B. J. Roe, Michael Deane, James Brown, Arthur J. McDonald, Edward McArdle.

Comhairle Ceantair Thuaithe: Baile Átha Fhirdhia Uimh 1, Droichead Átha Uimh 1 (Lú) agus Dún Dealgan

Maidir le daoine a chónaíonn i gceantair thuaithe, tháinig go leor gnéithe den saol faoi obair na gComhairlí Ceantair Tuaithe (RDCanna), a raibh sláinte sláintíochta agus poiblí, bóithre, oibreacha poiblí, tithíocht agus talamh a fháil chun teaghaisí a thógáil i measc a gcuid feidhmeanna. Rinneadh go leor de ghnáthghnó na gcomhairlí contae trí na comhairlí ceantair tuaithe óna mbunú i 1898 go dtí gur díothaíodh iad faoin Acht Rialtais Áitiúil, 1925 áit ar aistríodh a gcuid dualgas ansin chuig comhairlí contae.

Is spéisiúil díriú ar mhiontuairiscí na ndaoine a ndéantar dearmad orthu go minic faoi RDCanna toisc go dtugann siad léargas dúinn ar shaol na cosmhuintire, a raibh cuid acu ag streachailt le maireachtáil. Léiríonn na miontuairiscí an raon ábhar a láimhseáil na comhairlí agus a dtacaíocht agus a n-imní faoi shaincheisteanna polaitiúla agus sóisialta áitiúla agus náisiúnta ag an am. Mar shampla, d'athdhearbhaigh Comhairle Ceantair Thuaithe Dhún Dealgan a dtacaíocht le Rialtas Dúchais ag rá '... tá rún againn leanúint leis an streachailt in aghaidh an fhreasúra go léir go dtí go ngéillfear d'éileamh na hÉireann ar fhéinrialtas, go mbímid ag brath ar an Uasal John E Redmond agus ar an bPáirtí Éireannach chun mianta agus dóchas chine na hÉireann a thabhairt chun cinn go rathúil' (Iúil 1912, RDC/DLK/MB/001/011, lch122). Rith CCT Dhroichead Átha 'déanaimid comhghairdeas ó chroí leis an Uasal John E Redmond agus le Páirtí Parlaiminteach na hÉireann ar rith an Bhille um Rialtais Dúchais trí Theach na dTeachtaí' (13 Feabhra 1913, RDC/DRO/MB/001/007, lch162). I mí Lúnasa 1916, cheadaigh CCT Bhaile Átha Fhirdhia rún ag athdhearbhú a gcreideamh i bPáirtí Parlaiminteach na hÉireann agus 'ag cáineadh an rialtais as a sárú creidimh nuair a theip orthu an comhaontú sealadach beartaithe a dhéanamh maidir le Rialtas Dúchais a chur i gcrích, agus as leanúint den dlí comhraic sa tír' (Lúnasa 1916, RDC/ARD/MB/001/013, lch226). Sa bhliain 1917, rith Baile Átha Fhirdhia gur cheart ionadaíocht a dhéanamh ar Éirinn ag an 'Comhdháil Síochána tar éis an Chogaidh ... Éire a bheith ar cheann de na náisiúin Eorpacha is sine, agus ceann a mbeadh toradh an Chogaidh ag dul i bhfeidhm go díreach ar a leasanna' (Feabhra 1917, RDC/ARD/MB/001/013, lch 338). I 1914, 1917 agus 1918 rith CCT Dhroichead Átha 'vóta muiníne i bPáirtí Parlaiminteach na hÉireann' (10 Meitheamh 1918, RDC/DRO/MB/001/008, lch 362), agus in Aibreán 1918 shéan CCT Bhaile Átha Fhirdhia an togra coinscríofa ag cur in iúl 'an agóid is dáiríre atá againn i gcoinne Éire a áireamh sa Bhille Man Power agus an coinscríobh a bhrú ar an tír seo i gcoinne toil na ndaoine' (Aibreán 1918, RDC/ARD/MB/001/014, lch 310). Mar fhreagairt ar na stailceanna ocrais in Aibreán 1920 agus Deireadh Fómhair 1923 a bhí ar siúl i measc príosúnach polaitiúil poblachtach i bpríosúin na hÉireann, rinne CCD Dhroichead Átha agóid gach uair 'i gcoinne na cóireála mídhaonna a cuireadh amú ... agus éilímid go scaoilfear na fir seo láithreach d'fhonn a sheachaint tragóid chorraitheach' (13 Aibreán 1920, RDC/DRO/MB/001/009, lch.155). I mí Iúil 1920, d'aithin siad rialtas Poblachtach na hÉireann i rún 'go n-admhaíonn an Chomhairle Ceantair Tuaithe seo a toghadh go cuí ... leis seo údarás Dháil Éireann mar Rialtas mhuintir na hÉireann a toghadh go cuí ...' (13 Jul 1920, RDC/DRO/MB/001/009, lch221).

Ina theannta sin, glacadh rún i mí Lúnasa go n-ordófaí do sheirbhísigh uile na Comhairle a raibh post acu faoi Rialtas na Breataine éirí as an bpost láithreach. Déantar tagairt freisin d'éilimh ar dhamáiste do réadmhaoin ó Iúil 1921-Bealtaine 1923 i nóiméid 1923.

I measc samplaí de shaincheisteanna sláinte sóisialta agus poiblí tá litir ó Bhrainse Chontae Lú de Chumann na dTionóntaí Díshealbhaithe ag iarraidh ar CCT Bhaile Átha Fhirdhia suíomh do theachín beartaithe d'oibrí a athrú i mí Iúil 1912; díghalrú tithe; uisce glan agus caidéil uisce a thógáil; an ganntanas bainne atá faoi bhagairt sa tír, agus Scéim Mháithreachais agus Leasa Leanaí beartaithe i 1917; agus bearta a ghlac CCT Bhaile Átha Fhirdhia i mí na Nollag 1918 chun scaipeadh galar cosúil le tíofas a chosc.

PP36/1/4 (6)

November 29th 1917.

My dear Mr Tempest,

Once more I lift the wail of the poverty stricken inhabitant of England in war time and ask you if you could kindly ask Mr Lennon for his rent for Castletown. I would not worry him for it but that I find myself so hard pressed here and I know that in Ireland you are all so rich.

I do hope that you are keeping well through all this time of trouble. I hear reports from Ireland now and again. Most of them come to me from soldiers who have been there. There is a strong feeling here of friendliness towards Ireland if the extremists would only give it a chance. But unfortunately there seems to be such a quantity of mob rule in the country now that it has become impossible for people who are not of the peasant class to live there in comfort.

I am just now collaborating in a book with my friend Alfred Perceval Graves (Father O'Flyn) and both of us have a thirst to return but fear it will be made impossible. Let us hope against hope that the Convention may do something.

Yours very truly

Patrick Kirwan.

LONDON, S.E.

In reply please quote No. 47.

To The Hon. Secretary.
Dundalk, Agricul. & Indus. Show. Society.

March 17th. 1915.

Dear Sir or Madam,

My Committee have decided to give a fixed grant of £16 to your Society for the year 1915 subject to Cottage and Garden classes or a Show being held and on the distinct understanding that the expenditure of the money shall be confined to Cottagers or peasants as defined, viz:-

"A Cottager or peasant is a person whose only means of subsistance is a weekly wage (not exceeding £1 per week) and, or a handicraft or home industry, and the area of whose holding, (if any) does not exceed one statute acre, the Poor Law Valuation of which does not exceed £5."

Owing to circumstances having prevented a decision being arrived at earlier in the year, it has been decided to waive the rule with regard to acknowledgment in Schedule and Catalogue.

If you will sign and return the enclosed form as soon as possible a cheque for the amount will be sent about the end of July.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

I measc na samplaí tá 'Origin of the Great War' (1916) agus 'Red Cross Work in County Louth 1914-1918' (1919). PP118/A/9/1 (1)

Paris 15th November, 1916.

Dear Joseph,

It is just about a month since you wrote your letter, and I hope you will excuse the delay in answering. You will understand that we have little time for correspondence, so that when I do get a free moment at the office I take advantage of it to get off letters.

We were delighted to hear about dear May, and I have written to her, I am sure she well deserves everything good and I am sure all the nuns are sincerely glad for her.

Since last I wrote there have been changes for the better on the Front. You will have been the splendid attack of the French at Verdun, and how they have sent back the Boches in four hours over ground which they (the boches) took as many months to gain, and at great loss. Verdun now takes a secondary place almost in the minds of the French, and no one fears any longer for the City, although it is in a very sad state, I read a letter from our of our Travellers here, who is in the ravitaillement des Canons, and he said that he had passed through Verdun lately and there was not a house which had not suffered.....He also spoke of the tremendous stocks of ammunition which we had accumulated, and the enormous number of Cannons both large and small which the Allies possessed.....

These last two days there has been very good news from the Somme, where the British have made a good advance. Unfortunately, everyone is now reconciled to a Winter campaign, though if the "Push" continues steadily as it is going at present, we may expect great things by the Spring.

You ask me about conditions in Paris. Well things have advanced enormously in price, and every day sees a new rise, first on one thing and then on another. Just now every one is worried, as we are threatened with lack of coal on account of transport difficulties, and incidentally lack of gas. Altogether these last few days have been rather worrying. First of all, on Sunday a bad fire broke out in one of the electric stations, with the result that half Paris was plunged in darkness, and everyone went rushing round trying to get candles

Bailiúchán measctha agus páirteach de chomhfhreagras le agus ó fhear gnó Bhaile Átha Fhirdhia, Joseph Dolan, a bhaineann lena theaghlach, a ghnó grósaera agus crua-earraí, agus na gníomhaíochtaí éagsúla a raibh baint aige leo, 1901-1933 den chuid is mó, mar shampla Conradh na Gaeilge, caomhnú na Gaeilge (baineann ceithre mhír le Coláiste Bhrighde in Ó Méith), Cumann Seandálaíochta Chontae Lú, agus an pholaitíocht. Tá go leor tagairtí ann do náisiúnachas na hÉireann, don staid pholaitiúil in Éirinn, don chríochdheighilt, don choinscríobh, don fhoréigean agus do Chogadh na Saoirse. I measc cuid de na comhfhreagraithe tá Horace Plunkett, an tAthair Augustine (Mainistir Phroinsiasach na gCaipisíneach, Baile Átha Cliath), Philip MacMahon, John Dillon, TF McGahon, an tEaspag Daniel Cohalan, Thomas Callan Macardle, Edward Carson agus Michael Collins. Scríobhann Michael McGrath as Sr. Halla an Lín, Baile Átha Cliath chuig Dolan ag tabhairt cuntas finné súil ar an bhfulaingt agus an léirscrios le linn Éirí Amach 1916; agus scríobhann Tessie a bhí ag obair in oifig The Times i bPáras i 1916-1917 nuacht a bhaineann leis an bhFronta agus srianta maireachtála i bPáras. Tá méid beag ábhar ann atá bainteach le reiligiún, baint Dolan le Scoil Éanna Phádraig Mhic Phiarais (1908-1912), Naomh Uinseann de Pól, Cumann Altranais Dúiche Bhaile Átha Fhirdhia agus Bhaile an Ghearlánaigh, Foraoiseoirí Náisiúnta na hÉireann, ceannach Pháirc Ó Méith, agus an Summer Time Act, 1916.

A Chara,

I got your letter of 18th. August and only the tragic distractions since have prevented me replying to it.

I think nobody appreciates Frank Aiken's mind and position more clearly or more sympathetically than I do. Frank was not only negociating with me for"preserving peace in Dundalk" when the Dundalk Barracks was taken by National troops; he was actually doing it to a certain extent, but very dangerous forces were working underground in his own ranks, and Frank could not have controlled them and their operations would have brought a much worse state of affairs there.

The present position with regard to Frank and his men is brought about by the same cause as that bringing about the dreadful conditions in other parts of the country, namely,-pure waywardness, futility, and irresponsibility.

Whether it be a sign of strength or of weakness, the actual position is that practically the only condition made with regard to the men in your area is that they surrender their arms.

Beir Beannacht,

4th NORTHERN DIVISION.

TO THE CITIZENS OF LOUTH, DOWN AND ARMAGH,

A new position has been created in this area by the Invasion of Troops acting under G.H.Q., Portobello Barracks, the Arrest of our Divisional Commandant and the Imprisonment of Six Divisional Officers, and we ask the moral and material support of all Citizens in meeting the new situation.

The I.R.A in this Division has been kept intact, and refused to allow itself to be made use of by any Political Party. Our Object has been to secure the Unity of the Nation, to avoid Civil War and the Horrible Sight of Comrades who Fought Side by Side during the English Reign of Terror shooting each other down. Our efforts have always been on the side of Army Unity, and even at the time of his arrest our Divisional Commandant was engaged in the noble task of trying to bring an end to the present Fratricidal Strife, endeavouring to Secure a Truce and an Honourable Agreement so as to wring from England—the Common Enemy—our Just Demands in the present circumstances.

Though our Organization has been almost entirely maintained in the area by the personal sacrifices, pecuniary and otherwise, of our Officers and Men, we claim to have fulfilled our guarantees—to Headquarters of both sections of the Army—to keep the peace of the District and afford to every Citizen the protection to which he is entitled.

On the shoulders of the men responsible for the recent unnecessary display of force must rest the entire blame of its calamitous results.

The Morale and Unity of the Army in the Division is still secure, notwithstanding the sinister Form of Conscription of our men attempted, and we confidently claim the support of every true Irish Citizen in maintaining our Forces Independent of any Political Clique.

Signed,

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS,

FOURTH NORTHERN DIVISION I.R.A.

To the Electors of North Louth.

Dundalk, 8th February, 1916.

GENTLEMEN—

At the request of many influential Nationalists of the Constituency I seek your support for the Parliamentary Representation of North Louth, rendered vacant by the death of your esteemed Member, the late Mr. Augustine Roche. It has been represented to me that the choice of the recent Convention (especially having in view the events which preceded it) does not commend itself to the vast body of the electorate and affords no guarantee of the unanimity which is essential to success in the great National issues with which we are immediately confronted.

As a LOCAL MAN who has for upwards of 30 years had the honour of representing you at various Public Boards and who consequently has had an opportunity of appreciating your pressing needs, I promise that if elected I will strenuously support the Irish Parliamentary Party in their endeavours for the attainment of Home Rule and the legislative independence of Ireland.

In addition to this great and supreme question, I intend to continue to do everything possible in the interests of the Labour Cause, regarding, as I do, the hardy toiler as being the foundation and the life-blood of the Nation. The main planks in my platform would include rigorous opposition to any further taxation casting an additional burthen on an already over-taxed country, to protect, foster, and encourage the pursuit of agriculture, which is really the principal channel from which our country derives its sustenance, to put in the forefront the claims of local industries (including fisheries, which have already suffered to the extent of £16,000 owing to the withdrawal of Irish Fishery Grants), and the outstanding claims of the Town Tenants' and the Evicted Tenants' Cause.

I feel that I am in a position to confidently say that in the course of my public career I have ever been anxious to serve the people and their cause without shirking a responsibility or sacrificing a principle. Being locally resident, I would be ready and willing on all occasions, if elected, to personally meet any of my constituents.

Going forward, therefore as a LOCAL NATIONALIST, I respectfully solicit your vote, and if elected I promise faithfully and consistently to endeavour to fill, with satisfaction to the Constituency, the responsible position I seek to attain and in every way to justify the trust reposed in me.

Yours truly,
BERNARD HAMILL.
