Minute No. 55/21

Speech from outgoing Mayor

The outgoing Mayor Cllr. Kevin Callan opened the Annual Meeting and thanked Councillors and officials for their assistance to him during the previous year. Cllr. Callan noted that this, his third term serving as Mayor was not an ordinary year and had not been similar to previous terms due to Covid. He particularly appreciated the people of Drogheda who were incredibly warm and supportive to him. Mayor Callan thanked his fellow Drogheda Borough District members for coming together and all working in common for the good of the people, noting that the pulling together of all parties during his term was incredibly worthwhile.

Members commended Mayor Callan on carrying out his role of Mayor during a very challenging and difficult year, and much praise was given to how Cllr. Callan had facilitated and encouraged all members to work together to tackle difficult items such as the Port Access Northern Cross funding issue.

Minute No. 56/21

Election of Mayor

To elect a Mayor of the Borough District of Drogheda for the ensuing year, in accordance with Section 36 of the Local Government Act, 2001.

A request for nominations for election of Mayor was called.
